

About the Bank

- Mission

New digital technologies and affordable financial solutions support people in all important initiatives, making their lives easy and convenient.

- Vision

To be a caring partner in financial and related spheres.

- Brand promise

AMIO makes the banking experience easy and appropriate for you. Trust and enjoy.

- Values

Human centricity, honesty, trust, professionalism and dynamism

These values are the key philosophy of our activities. Brand values and unique architecture makes our image complete describing human characteristics.

AMIO BANK is currently launching a Paid Internship program for IT students with the opportunity of further employment.

Training topics within internship

- Bank and Banking activity
- Basic economic knowledge
- Risk culture
- Information security in the bank
- Acquaintance with financial systems operating in the bank
- List of operational systems of the bank
- Acquaintance with the systems operating in the bank
- Basics of bank network topology structure

Required skills

- Education of information technology
- Working skills of Windows, Linux operating systems
- Knowledge of network structure of OSI model
- Skills to quickly orientate in stressful situations
- Excellent analytical skills
- Teamwork ability

Benefits of the internship

- Hands-on experience with a wide range of software engineering tasks
- Collaborating with software, network security skilled teams
- Flexible schedule for students

The application procedure:

All interested candidates who meet the requirements above and are confident that their background and experience qualify them for this position, should send CVs to hr@amiobank.am.

Deadline: 10.01.2024.

Please fill in the “subject” field of the letter indicating the position and your name, surname as follows: “Intern – Full name”.